VEGETABLE PILE OINTMENT.

TO THE PUBLIC.

For 25 Years I was sorely afflicted with the Piles. After trying every remedy I could hear of and failing to receive any benefit, in 1857, I discovered a remedy, purely vegetable, which effected an entire cure, and I have had no return of it.

Anxious to relieve the afflicted and to promote my own benefit, I made public my discovery and had the gratification to know that my remedy cured a large number of persons. My ointment was advertised in the public prints and I met with great success, until the war came on.

By the advice of friends, I have determined again to manufacture the OINTMENT and offer it for sale. Any number of certificates of its value could be obtained if necessary.

Price of box $1, and postage. (fifteen cents.) As soon as I can make arrangements, I will put it in the hands of the druggists of the State.

A CARD.

SEVERAL months ago, I purchased the entire Stock of goods owned by BRANSON, FARRAR & CO., and continued the business, changing the name afterwards to Branson & Jones, I advertising myself as Proprietor and Mr. Branson as Agent for the N. C. Mr. Branson will continue to be General Agent for the N. C. Directory, which will necessarily engage most of his time and attention.

I shall be pleased to furnish our friends and the public with BOOKS, STATIONERY, SHEET MUSIC and other articles in our line, at lowest cash prices.

COLUMBIAN COLLEGE,

WASHINGTON, D. C.

THE SESSIONS OF THE SEVERAL Departments open as follows:

The PREPARATORY, September 9th; the COLLEGIATE, September 23rd; the THEOLOGICAL, October 7th; the LAW, October 14th; and the MEDICAL October 19th.

This College was organized with a reference to the oft urged suggestion of WASHINGTON, that a University, at the Federal Metropolis, would tend to the "assimilation of the principles, opinions and manners of our countrymen, by the common education of a portion of its youth from every quarter." Its graduates have verified the expectations of Madison and Monroe, that the facilities of hearing debates in Congress, arguments in the Supreme Court and Lectures from eminent men and of visiting Libraries and Collections in science, gathered at this centre, would foster a comprehensive mental development.

The Preparatory School gives a thorough training for business, and preparation for College. The College proper has eight efficient Professors; all the Chairs being filled. The Theological school has three Professors and Lecturers; the Law school four, and the Medical, ten. The expenses are as low as at other Colleges—Number of students the past year, 434. CIRCULATE THE CAMPAIGN PAPERS.

When we speak of campaign papers, we mean every Conservative and Democratic paper in the State. Our North Carolina Dailies, Tri-Weekly or Semi-Weekly and Weekly papers, are the most reliable and the best campaign papers to be circulated in this State. Be sure to encourage your own local papers, first. Every man, who has a proper estimate of the value of the press, will do this. After this, let every man encourage the Sentinel, published at the Capital of the State. Our circulation is now very extensive—reaching every town, village and neighborhood nearly in the State. Let it be extended.

From what we learn, we should not be surprised if there are more Northern papers circulated in North Carolina, than there are of the excellent Weeklies published in the State. We are glad to know that the best Northern Democratic and Conservative papers are circulated among us. This is right. But our people act blindly and wrong, when they do this, to the neglect of their own papers. If you want better papers than you now have at home, patronize them, encourage them, and their proprietors will then be able to give them to you.

DOCUMENTS FOR THE CAMPAIGN.

The State Executive Committee are contemplating the issue of documents for the Campaign. Short, clear and truthful "Facts for the People" are important and necessary. They are needed now, and must be had at once.

To do this efficiently, our best writers must go to work and prepare them, and money must be had to print them. Every man must do his duty. Let no one wait to be asked. Let every one do what he can, both in raising money and getting up suitable matter for Tracts, and send both to the Committee at once.

The Radical Central Committee at Washington, and the Committee also at Raleigh, are flooding this State with documents. As yet the Democratic Central Committee at Washington and New York have done nothing. The Executive Committee at Raleigh cannot supply this lack of service, without money.

HO! FOR THE TRIUMPH OF PEACE—THE CONSTITUTION AND THE UNION.

Victory in the Northern States is now quite certain. Our friends there are at work, and the elections to come off in September and October will insure an overwhelming vote for SEYMOUR AND BLAIR, in November.

The election of Seymour and Blair means PEACE, the restoration of CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND CIVIL LIBERTY. There is no enthusiasm for Grant and Colfax. The tide of reaction, all over the country, strikes terror in the ranks of the Radicals. The people are tired of war, tired of military rule, tired of high taxes, tired of the prostration of business, tired of the reign of anarchy and revolution. They want peace and harmony, and civil law and order, and they will have it, by the election of SEYMOUR AND BLAIR.

North Carolina is rallying to the rescue. From Currituck to Cherokee, the clans are moving. Seymour and Blair Clubs are being formed all over the State. Let them be formed in every neighborhood. Let the Clubs meet often. Let them spread the campaign papers and the documents. Let every man become a CANVASSER.

DISTURBANCES.—The last Danville Times contains no less than three separate accounts of affrays between black and white men in Caswell County, in each of which the negro was the aggressor. In one of the instances, which occurred in Yanceyville, the white man had to be put in jail, and the jail guarded all night, to protect him from the violence of a mob of thirty or forty negroes. Will the Northern papers take note of these facts? They are the logical results of Radical rule, and the country will be ruined beyond redemption, unless these horrible tendencies are checked

BRIBERY AND COERCION.

The Legislature passed one or two brutum, fulmen bills about bribery and coercion, sedition, rebellion, &c. The bills should have been entitled, "Acts to prevent colored voters from voting for the Democrats." That was the object of their passage and they will amount to nothing. No Conservative or Democrat will bribe or coerce voters, nor will they buy votes. They are in favor of every man's voting for whom he pleases. Are the Radicals so willing? If so, there will be no quarrel between us.

A large farmer in this county was applied to recently by several laboring men to make a contract with him to labor for the next year. His reply was: "I will engage no one to work with me for the next year, until after the election in November is over.—I will then hire my freedmen to work for me." Can any one object to this? Will any one employ an enemy to work in his house or on his farm? Can Democrats and Conservatives be expected to do it?

"CHIEF JUSTICE PEARSON AND THE CRISIS."—Several correspondents claim to be heard in our columns, in reference to Judge Pearson's letter. The excessive pressure upon us, pending the Legislature, prevented a concise, yet full, editorial criticism; if our correspondents desire to be heard, we forbear, for the present.

To day, we present to our readers the first part of an able article from the pen of a member of the profession and an admirer of the Judge, who has not heretofore graced our columns. The remainder will appear to morrow, and it will appear in full in our next Semi-Weekly and Weekly. We regret the necessity of dividing it, on account of its length.

The writer's views are his own, and he is responsible for them. The differences of opinion, either as a matter of principle or of policy, which may exist among Conservatives and Democrats on the question of negro suffrage, may be discussed with propriety, but we must fully endorse the action of our late State Convention, in expressing no opinion upon it, at this stage of public sentiment. As a mass, whatever may be the feelings or convictions of Democrats or Conservatives here and there, our people are willing to leave the question, at present, where the National Democratic Convention left it. Fidelity to that organization, we think, demanded such a course by the State Convention. If there are Conservatives and Democrats who favor, either from policy or principle, qualified or universal negro suffrage, and choose to discuss the subject or to make personal pledges in reference to it, they are at liberty to do so, provided they do not pledge the party to any action, pro or con, which the party has not assumed or pledged. We are in favor of doing all for the colored race for their protection, safety, liberty, and prosperity, which the State believes can be done, with a due regard to the peace, the safety and the prosperity of both races, and no more. That is all the negro ought to ask. We pledge his freedom perpetually; and those people, black or white, lie outright, who say to the contrary. We pledge all protection and preservation to his freedom, his property, and his life, which human laws and the power of the government can guarantee to the white men. But, with the lights before us, we cannot pledge to the negro a controlling power either in the State or National governments. The doctrine of negro equality we regard as a figment of disordered minds, which has no support from reason, from nature, or from the word of God—hence, we reject it. Establish political equality and all other equality, where the blanks are so numerous as in the Southern States, must follow as a sequence. It is only a question of time, and must follow.

"LET US HAVE PEACE."—The Georgia papers complain that the Radicals are drilling the negroes in Georgia, generally at night. This, of course, means war—nothing else but war.

All this, and more, looking in that direction, is being done, without any provocation or reason for it, on the part of the whites. The Conservative press and people counsel peace—discourage all causes for irritation and alarm,—yet the Radicals persist in their course.

The negroes are taught to be defiant, impudent and provoking in their course.—They are told of superior numbers, excited by incendiary speeches to expect violence from the whites, when the whites urge moderation and peace. Do the negroes desire extermination? Are they determined to be deluded and goaded on by worthless white men, who thrive only by riot and excitement? We hope not. They know, or ought to know, upon what white men they can rely. They know their old owners and friends,—why will they allow themselves to be thus misled?

WHERE THE MONEY GOES.—The report of the Clerk of the House of Representatives shows that the expenses of the U. S. House of Representatives for stationery, penknives, &c., being waited upon, &c., exclusive of the pay of members, cost the nation, from 1st July 1867 to 1st July 1868, $725,-530!!

THE CORRESPONDENT, "Data," of the Baltimore Sun, says that Seymour and Blair have the earnest and warm support of the President and Secretaries McCulloch, Randall, Browning and Wells. One who has conversed with Mr. Seward describes his position thus: "He wants Grant and Colfax defeated, but he don't want Seymour and Blair to do it!" This is highly characteristic.

A GOOD JOKE.—A few days since, one Rev. Jas. J. Goodwyn, of Halifax, a Radical preacher, advised the blacks to steal from the whites, if they wouldn't employ them, &c. One of them took his advice and stole a large quantity of corn from him!

HON. O. H. DOCKERY addressed the people at Rockingham, Richmond Co., on the 22nd. Hon. S. J. Person replied to him and took "the hist off."

For the Sentinel.

CHIEF JUSTICE PEARSON AND THE CRISIS.

MESSRS EDITORS:—I presume that there are few reading persons in this State, who have not read the recent letter of Chief Justice Pearson, on the present political status. For myself, I am free to say that I have given it an unusually careful and earnest attention. The magnitude of the subjects embraced in it, the high judicial position of its author, and the rather startling character for such a production, seemed to demand more than a passing interest.

The publication of such a letter is certainly an era in our judicial history. The writer of this does not remember when one of our Judges, ever before, mingled publicly in the political strifes of the day. Of course, I do not embrace, in my remarks, the frothy nothings that have recently been hawed up to positions, heretofore held to be places of honor. It ought to require occasions of surpassing moment to the public, and convictions of crystalline clearness, of ability to guide into, or at least ingest, the path of safety, to justify the highest judicial officer of the State in risking the purity of his ermine in the mud of the political arena. I believe both combined to produce Judge Pearson's letter. Certainly, no occasion was ever more imminent than the present posture of the country,—and my faith in the ingenuousness of the Chief Justice's convictions, (or, at all events, apprehensions,) makes it impossible for me to deny him the right, to say nothing of the propriety, of venturing such a remarkable innovation.

There are many highly important topics touched upon in the Chief Justice's letter, many grave consideations suggested, and a number of inferences drawn, against which I have no cause of complaint. There are others, however, which, from the dangerous heresies with which they are fraught, or the singular distortion of the real truth they contain, I desire to review in a cursory manner; and I greatly mistake the logic of events, if a candid examination of them does not lead to a widely different conclusion from that arrived at, or, more correctly stated, set out with, by Chief Justice Pearson.

The Judge has not confined himself to any categorical arrangement of his subjects; and I shall take the liberty to be equally desultory.

In the first place, the letter does not exaggerate the critical character of the issues before us. The Judge sees war at no great distance in the future. It is not impossible that such calamity is before us. The Judge earnestly deprecates it. No one more heartily joins him in this than myself. The Judge thinks the only mode certain and safe, by which this can be avoided, is to vote for Grant and Colfax for President and Vice President of the United States. God forbid that that alternative should be the only hope of the American people! In such an event, the Judge's apprehensions would too speedily become, I fear, sad reality.

The usual clearness of the Chief Justice's great mind is sadly wanting in this his last a mormous production. Remembering, with fearful distinctness, the indescribable horrors of our recent struggle, he gives way, with too much readiness, to the baleful portents of an unduly excited imagination; forgetting, in his pregnant anxiety, that even the fearful calamity which we all, in common with himself, so earnestly deprecate, is not the worst evil that can befall a free people. There are conditions which unrestrain-d oppression can produce, that would make death itself a cheap exchange. Let him take a calm survey of the actual condition of the country, not that portion of it only on which we are a part of the unfortunate dwellers, but the whole country, from the Atlantic to the Pacific. Let him answer frankly the question that will meet him at the very threshold, to wit: "In what single respect does the government of the United States justify the appellation of a free and Democratic Republic, in which the laws are made and administered in accordance with the requirements, and within the scope of the limits, of a free, written Constitution?" I think I do not venture much in saying that a thoroughly responsive answer to this question will raise apprehensions of a much more startling character, than any which have yet disturbed the repose of the learned Chief Justice.

The question, in truth, may be narrowed down to a much simpler form, viz: "What have we left of constitutional liberty?" The government, it matters not what it may be called, is simply an oligarchical tyranny. A few men, at the close of the great struggle for integrity of territory, united by years for a common purpose of a patriotic character, accidentally in possession of the direction of affairs, finding power sweet and dominion delectable, subdued by the almost universal demoralization of the times, determined to perpetuate their tenure at any and all hazards. The last few years attest, in numberless ways, how faithfully they have cultivated that purpose. Where are we now? The President utterly ignored, the Supreme Court emasculated, and the Army subsidized! Step by step have these irresponsible usurpers advanced in their sacrilegious attacks upon free institutions,—one by one have they torn away the columns of the temple;—Tremblingly, hesitatingly at first, awed by the sacred ægis of a nation's veneration, like the Gauls entering Rome, they hold their breath at each cautious step, as if fear to lay their polluted hands upon an object so imposing, until, at last, one more bold and reckless than the rest—a Stevens, a Sumner or Wade—leads the way, and then the mind fails to grasp or the pen to describe the fearful havoc of all that ennobles man, or Christian civilization hopes for. All restraint banished by the searing consciousness of a first step in crime, drunk with the intoxicating realization of unrestrained license, no limit can be assigned to their mad career. Even the laws of nature seem unsettled in this indiscriminate upheaving of all the elements of society. Claims of race or color are derided, and human sympathy, it acknowledged at all, is managed in such a grotesque perversion of reason, or the dictates of common sense, as defies every moral sense. But such an amount of reckless mismanagement is not accomplished without money. Friends have to be rewarded, the military paid and private emoluments provided for. Hence taxes—taxes varied in every shape and form that the human intellect with its most ingenious cunning can devise. And debt—and such a debt as no nation on earth ever dreamed of, whose mammoth proportions can scarcely be said to be even faintly shadowed, in the partial exhibits now and then given to the public, and whose unsummed pondrance weighs down the energies of the people with an incubus like the palsy of death.

These are the men who are now before the American people, asking a continuation of their power in an appeal to the ballot box, and, as if in derision of the forms of Constitutional government, have the unblushing effrontery to proclaim that a certain rule of suffrage shall prevail in one class of States, another in a second class, while others are not to be permitted to vote at all. The question of franchise in the subjugated States has been one of considerable difficulty with them from the first. It was at first thought more safe and certainly more desirable to them, to reserve the solution of this question until after the Presidential election. The torrent of enthusiasm, attaining its highest mark about the close of the war, had not subsided; it was easy for skillful engineers to control its tremendous power, for the advantage of the dominant party, with the thrilling cry of "Union." They were so fortunate as to be in power when the contest ended gloriously for the cause of the Constitution and undivided empire. The patriotism, energies and purses of the people had been subjected to a tearful strain. But now, all was well—They could forbear a great deal—they could pardon much, and the sacred cause of Union and freedom easily glided into the hydra-headed monster, now known as Radicalism. The people, however, began to grow restive over the prolonged delay in settling the country. In addition to the depressing effect upon every interest, it was found that the burthen of taxes, so far from being lightened, had grown frightfully more oppressive. The heavy mutterings of discontent warned the Radicals that something must be done, and a ter experiments, whose oppressions no people were ever before subjected to outside the annals of barbarism, behold seven States restored to the great family of the Union! And what a restoration!! The exciting legend of the uprising of the Bedlamites of a certain Insane Asylum, against their keepers, shaving their heads, putting them through a course of regimen, and otherwise swapping positions with them, is the only parallel, that I have ever had the luck to encounter in all my reading. The restoration had to be accomplished with the express condition, that the vote of the new Eutopias was to be secured to their gracious benefactors in the coming election. This could only be done by reversing the order of nature; and it was done.

Having first deprived the intelligent and proprietary portion of the population of all right to participate in the management of their own State governments, they placed the entire control of affairs in those States in the hands of traitorous renegades, beggarly adventurers and the necessarily ignorant, because recently emancipated, blacks. Was there ever such a selection made before, or the proper instruments in effecting that most difficult, because most delicate, of all political operations, the re-establishment of recently rebellious States in all their pristine relations to the general government? The spirit that inspired such a selection is but too apparent. It was tools they wanted, not men, and well did they select them! The mongrel crew are worthy of their patrons. Dressed in their little brief authority, they are eagerly striving, with zealous rivalry, to outvie each other in "playing such fantastic tricks before high heaven, as make the angels weep." Men, without enough of this world's goods to give them a decent burial, are voting, "with devilish iteration," burthens upon a ruined people, that are counted by millions. Stripling upstarts and ignorant vagabonds, whose gross unfamiliarity with every honest calling, and whose Simian antics, would at least provoke mirth, if the subject was not almost too sad for tears, are thrust into positions of great responsibility and delicacy, while the good and wise of our land are forbidden the exercise of even the paltriest place. Truth, honesty, industry, everything that ennobles or refines, crushed beneath the heel of usurping despotism, with everything in their own hands,—yet the coward instinct of the tyrant fears our unarmed resistance! An army is demanded and obtained with Springfield rifles in their hands, to complete absolute dominion over hated "rebels." And, no doubt, under the confidence inspired by this anticipated addition, the leading organ of these apostles of the new order openly threatens us, if we dare resist, with death—not by the decree of an unbiased law—not in open warfare as the brave meet the brave,—but by the hand of the prowling assassin! We are told that people are already in our swamps getting the timber for our coffins; that our shrouds are on the way from Massachusetts, and that the persons have been engaged to dig our graves in the loneliest corners of our fields!

The catalogue grows sickening—though not half exhausted. And yet, all these, and much more, are facetiously termed, by the patriotic Chief Justice, matters of "insignificant importance," and the natural attempt to get rid of which, even by the peaceable exercise of the ballot, is stigmatized as positively "wicked!" Great God! what times have we fallen upon! That men, if they must break through the sanctity of their high positions to meddle with the political affairs of the country, should be found to urge upon their afflicted countrymen the ineffaceable stain of self degradation! What is to be accomplished by this astounding abnegation? Why, we are gravely told that we must do all this to avoid a servile (or, perhaps, as "the thing" now stands, I should more politely say, internecine) war! The "colored people have an undefined impression that there is still a wish to reduce them to slavery!" and if Seymour and Blair are elected President and Vice President of the United States, they will be convinced of it,—and then comes the war!! Who produced this "impression" still so "undefined" in the colored mind! Not their old masters. Not Seymour and Blair themselves, nor a single one of their supporters. Who, but the vile scum blown hither by some malignous breeze, or as vultures, drawn from afar by the subtle instincts of their debased natures!—men, whose only hope of place and spoils is based upon uncompromising enmity between the blacks and their natural allies and friends, their former owners! It may be barely possible that intemperate language of some of the fierce opponents of colored suffrage has furnished a part of the material of this "undefined impression." Certainly, if so claimed, the inference must be much overstrained. The opponents of colored suffrage, I have no doubt, thought they were acting for the best interests of both races, upon the basis of universal freedom.

(To be concluded, to-morrow.)

ONE OF THE most distinguished statesmen of New England, writing to the Editors of the Washington Evening Express, says:

"With regard to the political situation it seems to be very favorable to the Democracy. I find it is the universal impression among the Democracy that they are to win in the contest. It is a presentiment which foreshadows the coming event. There is very little spirit displayed among the Radicals in this vicinity, while the Democracy are wide awake and full of confidence.—Whatever might have been their feelings when the nominations were first announced, they are all now convinced they are the very best that could be made. They recognize in Gov. Seymour the first and most accomplished statesman of the land, and in Gen Blair a brave and patriotic statesman. In comparison with Seymour the silent candidate of the Radicals suffers terribly. I believe that Grant's defeat will be as signal as that of Gen. Scott when he ran against ex President Pierce in 1856. The skies are bright."

The Hartford Times states that General B. F. Butler recently applied for accommodations at the American House, in Pittsfield, Mass., when several gentlemen, who were stopping there as guests of the house with their families, stepped forward and notified the proprietor that if he received him as a guest at that house, they would leave immediately; and he could not come in.

SEYMOUR AND BLAIR IN CHATHAM.

At a meeting of the citizens of New Hope Valley, in Chatham,

On motion, Dr. R. J. Fooshee was called to the Chair and J. F. Williams and R. H. Barbee appointed Secretaries.

A Committee on Resolutions was appointed, who reported as follows:

WHEREAS, We, a portion of the people of Chatham county, are still desirous of continuing the form of free government as given to us by our fathers;

Be it Resolved, That we hail, with pride and satisfaction, the nomination of Horatio Seymour and F. P. Blair, the one a statesman, who will rule by law and not by the sword, the other an honorable soldier, who pleads for the rights of his former enemies under their parole.

Resolved, That the thanks of the people of this Valley are due, and are hereby tendered, to Sims Upchurch, E. P. Pearington, M. D. Williams and J. B. Stone, Esqs., former Justices in this Valley. We know that, with pure hearts and stainless hands, they have held the scales, and meted out justice alike to high and poor, noble and ignoble, and we regard them as highly honored by having been thus persecuted for righteousness sake,—and we indulge the fond—though we fear, vain—hope that their successors will be as wise, as just, and as merciful as they.

On motion, adjourned till Saturday, Aug. 15, to form a Seymour and Blair Club.

On motion, ordered that the proceedings of the meeting be furnished the Sentinel for publication.

R. J. FOOSHEE, President.

STONEWALL JACKSON'S COAT.—The Glasgow Herald says:

The widow of Stonewall Jackson has presented to Mr. David Macrae, of Glasgow, the coat worn by the great soldier when he fell in the arms of victory on the battle field of Chancellorsville. It was presented and sent by Gen. Lee to the widow, bearing the marks of the fatal bullet. The relic is accompanied by a beautiful and touching letter, in which Mrs. Jackson, referring to the country from which Mr. Macrae had come to see the South and its people, speaks of it as "the dear old land beyond the sea—that land which of all beyond the sea I admire and love the most—good, honest-hearted, Presbyterian Scotland!" We understand it is Mr. Macrae's intention to place this and the other relics he has brought from America, in some public museum, should there be a prospect of securing other private collections, and forming a Historical Museum of the late war, accessible to the public.

Judge Abbott well remarked at the Faneuil Hall meeting that "the duty of the Democratic party is not to stoop to defend this or that, but to attack now and to attack to morrow, and to keep on and attack until the works of the enemy are carried!"

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 28, 1868.

DEATH OF HON. DAVID L. SWAIN.

A telegraphic dispatch was received in this City, on yesterday afternoon, announcing the death, at his residence in Chapel Hill, at 9 o'clock the same morning, of the Hon. DAVID LOWRY SWAIN. But a few hours before the mournful intelligence was communicated to us, we had been shown, by the Hon. D. M. Barringer, a letter from Dr. Phillips, written at the request of Gov. Swain, in which he indulged strong hopes of his recovery. On Wednesday, Gov. Swain sat up and spoke cheerfully of his prospects of soon getting well,—an anticipation, alas! so soon dashed as to be rudely sad by its suddenness. It will be remembered that Gov. Swain and Prof. Fetter, while riding out together, about a fortnight since, were thrown from a carriage and seriously hurt, though no bones were broken. That accident, coupled, we fear, with Gov. Swain's deep and anxious concern and sorrow at the fate of the great Institution over which he had so long and ably and faithfully presided, hastened the afflicting bereavement which we here announce.

Gov. Swain was a remarkable man. No son of the State was more jealous of her honor, more careful of her interests, more proud of her history, or so conversant with her annals. Few men in the Union were distinguished for greater and more useful versatility of attainments, more vigorous intellect, more lofty patriotism, and no man, anywhere, for more conspicuous probity of private and public character. It may be said, with all the emphasis of perfect truth, that a "great and good man has fallen." We cannot pretend, in this brief announcement, even to attempt to do justice to the eminent loss which North Carolina has sustained. It will form the subject of regretful public demonstration throughout the State, and his character and services will be the theme of eulogy, not only in home, but National, circles. The thousands of citizens—some of them in the highest stations in the country,—scattered over the Union, who have, in the years that are gone, enjoyed the benefit of his wise counsels and affectionate instruction, will hear of his demise with a feeling of affliction akin to that with which one hears of the loss of a father. One by one, the great lights, which have illumined our dear old native State, in the past, are being extinguished,—making all the more intense the gloom by which we are at present surrounded!

Without any of the advantages of birth or fortune, Gov. Swain rose to positions of honor and distinguished usefulness, and it may justly be said of him that he was always equal to any responsibility devolved upon him. He was born in Buncombe on the 4th. of January, 1801, and was consequently in the 68th. year of his age. He studied law with Judge Taylor, in Raleigh, who predicted for him, though he was then but an undeveloped and awkward country boy, the eminence he afterwards attained. Admitted to the Bar, in 1823, he was successively, some few years after, elected member of the Legislature, Solicitor and Judge. In 1832 he was elected Governor of the State, which office he filled for three years. During the last year of his Gubernacy, he was elected President of the University, the honorable and elevated duties of which he continued to discharge, with illustrious fidelity and ability, until the present State authorities closed the doors of the University of North Carolina against him and his respected and faithful associates, a few weeks since. His last moments were saddened by the spectacle of the University, which he loved and whose annals he had so signally adorned, under charge of a military guard!

We trust that some competent pen will furnish our columns with a suitable tribute to the memory of this most excellent and eminent man. Peace to his honored ashes!

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Jas. R. Grist, Admr., will sell all the Real Estate of the late Allen Grist, in Beaufort county, at the Court House door in Washington, on the second Monday in October.

Family Flour, Sugar-cured Strips and Canvass Hams, Roe Herrings and Choice Teas: Douglas Bell.

First rate Piano and Guitar for sale: W. H. Jones & Co.

Beautiful Imperial Photographs, Ivory Types, Life-sized Photographs, colored in oil, &c.: J. W. Watson, Raleigh.

Teacher wanted to take charge of a limited School at Newton Grove, N. C.: Address Dr. Jno. C. Monk, at that Post Office.

Norfolk Female Institute—A Boarding and Day School for Young Ladies: Rev. Edwin Geer, Principal. Mr. Geer is so well and favorably known in North Carolina, that we are sure we need not comment his eminent qualifications for the position which he occupies. See his advertisement.

HANDSOME ESTABLISHMENT.—We are pleased to see that the large and elegant Store, on Fayetteville Street, adjoining Tucker Hall, belonging to A. L. Lougee, Esq., is about completed. It is, leaving out its big neighbor on the North, the handsomest store in the City,—having an iron front, mammoth plate windows, &c. The interior is gotten up in the highest style of improvement. The carpentering has been executed, in a most skillful and workmanlike manner, by Messrs. Atkins and Will, and the painting and decoration by Clawson, who has no superior in the art of embellishment.

The Store-rooms, upper and lower, are occupied by the well-known firm of R. B. Andrews & Co., Clothiers, who took possession on Wednesday. Enlarged room will enable them to extend their already very large business, and they will soon present an establishment which will have few, if any, equals South of the Northern cities. Mr. Andrews, the resident partner, is famous for his taste and enterprise, and the new store, under his energetic direction, will, indeed, be an Emporium of Fashion, which will be the resort of all who want something extra in the "fitting-up" line.

The basement rooms are to be occupied as a Barber-shop, and are to be tenanted, we learn, by a white Barber, with white assistants.

CASWELL AROUSED.—There was a grand Democratic Barbecue and Rally at Yanceyville on the 21st. There was a very large crowd of people in attendance. That veteran and distinguished gentleman, Giles Mebane, Esq., presided. A Seymour and Blair Club was formed, when every white man present, and twenty-four colored men, came forward and enrolled their names as members. The Barbecue was fine and bountiful. Speeches were made by Colonel F. B. Withers, Mr. Hodnett, and Hons. Giles Mebane and Bedford Brown, and also by Stephen Slade, George Bigelow and David Hunt, sensible and worthy colored men. Jesse C. Griffith, Esq., was Marshall of the Day.

The Danville Times, from which we make the foregoing extract, says:

"Caswell is all right. Every white man in the county, with the exception of two or three scallawags, will vote for Seymour and Blair, and one-half the negroes. Caswell is a glorious old county."

GOOD NEWS FROM THE MOUNTAINS.—A friend, writing us from Asheville, under date of the 21st, says: "There is a change going on in this county, which is more and more apparent, daily, and I believe that we shall carry this county by 300 majority. Haywood county is doing wonders. Two precincts, which gave 50 Radical majority at the late election, have not now twenty Radicals in them."

FAYETTEVILLE EAGLE.—This paper is now a semi-weekly, and starts with good promise of success. It is a live paper, and the editor, M. J. McSween, Esq., better known as "Long Grabs," of the old Observer, has our best wishes. By the way, we should have preferred the old name, "Fayetteville Observer." La prestige would commend it to the people of the State.

OUR COTEMPORARY, the Weldon News, fairly glitters with good tidings from the Roanoke country. The people seem to be thoroughly aroused to the great importance of the contest before us. By the way, we take occasion to commend our friend Stone's paper as an able, sprightly and earnest ally in the good cause.

THE VANDALS AT WORK.—We learn that the fine dwelling of Mr. Bullock, near Williamsboro', in Granville county, with nearly all its contents, was consumed by fire, some night last week.

On Monday night last, the fine Merchant Mill of Dr. Alex. Hawkins, of Warren county, was burned to the ground.

Both were the work of incendiaries.

THERE is to be a large Democratic and Conservative meeting at Gaston, to-morrow. A Seymour and Blair pole is to be raised, a Band of music will be on hand, a Barbecue is to be given and able Speakers will be in attendance.

COLFAX AGAINST NEGRO SUFFRAGE.—In his speech out in Colorado the other day Colfax declared himself opposed to negro suffrage—no doubt in order to catch the votes of his hearers.

FARMERS' MEETING IN CHATHAM.

A meeting of citizens of Chatham county was held at Mt. Pisgah, on Saturday, Aug. 1, 1868.

On motion of Major York, Dr. R. J. Fooshee was called to the chair, and John F. Williams and R. H. Barbee, Esq., appointed Secretaries.

By request, Major York explained the object of the meeting to be the formation of an Agricultural Society, to induce immigration, and secure a better system of cultivation, &c.

On motion, a Committee was appointed to prepare business for the meeting, who reported and recommended: 1. That the officers temporarily chosen be retained until a permanent organization was effected. 2. That another time and place of meeting be fixed. 3. That a Committee for Constitution and By-Laws be appointed.

Martha's Chapel was fixed as the place, and Aug. 15 as the time, of the next meeting.

The Chairman appointed the following Committee on Constitution and By Laws: J. J. Jenkins, John C. Stone, R. W. York, C. R. Scott, H. Sears; and M. D. Williams, T. C. Sears, and Wesley Griffin a Committee to select some person to deliver an address at the next meeting.

On motion, the meeting adjourned.

SEYMOUR AND BLAIR IN RANDOLPH.

A meeting was held at Franklinsville, Randolph County, on the 22nd. of August, for the purpose of organizing a Seymour and Blair Club.

Thomas Branson, Esq., presided, and C. Gray, Esq., acted as Secretary.

A Committee was appointed to report a Constitution and By-Laws.

During the absence of the Committee, the meeting was addressed by J. H. Foust, in a forcible and telling speech; at the conclusion of which,

The Committee submitted a report, which was unanimously adopted.

M. S. Robins then addressed the meeting at length, in a most telling manner, on the political issues before the country.

After which 55 came forward and subscribed their names to the Constitution.

The Conservatives of old Randolph are aroused and doing their whole duty.

The officers of the Club are as follows: Thos. Branson, President; J. B. Russell, Vice President; D. Curtis, Secretary; and Hugh Parks, Treasurer.

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

HALIFAX COUNTY, N. C., Aug. 25th. 1868.

Messrs. Editors:—Since we have been reconstructed down this way, and the new civil regime are discharging their functions of the government, there is little use, in our humble opinion, for Judges,—lawyers may as well lay aside their law books,—the jury boxes be converted into double barrel rat traps,—the Courts dismissed and the Court Houses turned into Tobacco Factories, if all Holden's Justices of the Peace (so called) have the supreme power one essayed to exhibit in this county, some ten days ago.

The so called referred to is one J. H. Everett, of South Gaston, notorious, in ante bellum days, as a Commission Merchant for negro produce, by the underground Rail Road. He has always kept one of the lowest grade grog shops, and is no doubt well prepared to serve Holden and the devil, in all the demands of their kingdoms. The only thing to be feared, on their part, is that he will go it a little too strong for them. We know not that the devil has any superstitions or fears on the ghost question, but are inclined to think that his competitor, Holden, would not have his servant to do anything that would raise departed spirits, as he showed a marked fear of such things in his late message to the Legislature on the militia bill. He must have been haunted, while writing that article, by the spirits of Benning's Brigade.

A case that lately came before the above-named servant of Holden, will serve to show your readers some of the unprincipled villainy practiced by these men. Some three weeks ago, one Alfred Edwards, freedman, and a member of the league, started to his cider press at first dawn of day, to look after some cider he had left out the previous night, but, before he reached the place, some one shot him from behind a tree. The load lodged in his hand, causing a painful wound. He saw the man who shot him, but, as it was dark, could not tell who he was. But, as soon as he was able to get about, he went before the above mentioned magistrate, and made oath, to the best of his belief, that he was shot by one Eaton Mills, an old-time free negro, and a good Democrat. Edwards was granted a writ, and twenty-seven members of the league were ordered with arms to serve it. Edwards' brother in law was made the officer, while a Deputy Sheriff, living in the district, was ready to do their bidding. They soon found their victim and took him before the Justice, (?) who was about to send him off to jail, when a witness appeared for Mills, and made oath that said Mills came to his house the night before Edwards was shot in the morning, and was at his, witness' house, the next morning about light, and the distance between the places is some five miles.

The witness is a gentleman of high standing and undoubted veracity, and though his was an oath of fact, and Edwards' was only to the best of his belief, yet the minister of the law persisted in sending him to jail, when other white men appeared and protested against such a thing; whereupon his majesty's highness (?) still thinking that he would get his victim to jail, showed clemency by giving him the privilege of bail in a bond of five hundred ($500) dollars. But to the astonishment of the justice-man and his crew, eighteen responsible persons signed the bond and more wanted to do so, but there was not room on the bond for their signatures. So his highness was left very much chagrined with his bond in the place of his prisoner. More anon.

Yours, &c. HALIFAX.

THE RADICAL THE WAR PARTY.

No man is better informed of the designs of the Radical party than Hon. Thomas A. Hendricks, of Indiana. In his canvass for Governor of that State, (election in October,) in a speech he delivered the other day at Princeton, Ind., he showed which was the war party. He said:

"But the Radical is satisfied if we can only keep the Southern States disturbed, distracted and impoverished. The Democrat says let us have harmony, let us have restoration, a prosperous South and a prosperous North, that we may stand together as the greatest people upon the earth.

If you want discord, if you want revolution and civil war before us again, then vote for the Radical party, which today, I say to you, through the leaders in Congress, would rather have revolution than to give up the offices and the money bags of the nation. ("That's so."). If you allow the Radicals to carry this election, then, if there shall come bloodshed and strife, don't blame anybody except your selves. We want harmony, we want peace, so that we may have trade, commerce, and prosperity. Does this Radical party talk to me about peace! It was but a week before the adjournment of Congress, at a night session of the Senate, that they passed the bill distributing among the people of the United States 200,000 rifled muskets of the calibre of .58. Just how large that is, I don't know, but I should think it would take a bullet about the size of the end of my thumb. These rifles were to be distributed by the governments of the States to such persons as they esteemed loyal. They don't regard you and me as loyal; we could not have got a gun. But Governor Baker could have decided in Indiana who were the loyal men and have given them the rifle. They are to be distributed among the negroes of the South. You have given the negro the ballot, you have put the white man down, and now you want to give him the Springfield rifle, with all the accoutrements, that the negro may lord it over the white man at the ballot box and at home. They may carry this out, gentlemen, but when it comes there will be bloodshed, and when blood begins to run in the South you will feel it running a little more rapidly through your veins, and after awhile it may commence to run from your veins. The fire of civil war lighted up anywhere in this country will be like the fire that lights up in the prairie in the night time. It will leap until even the horseman can not escape it. The Radical party say that the people ought to continue them in power. That may be so, but I am unable to see it in that light. I am in favor of putting them out on the first notice, the first opportunity, and I think that opportunity is coming in October. I think that it will come—that is my present impression. The handwriting is on the wall. The handwriting says as it said to Belshazzar of old, "Thou art weighed in the balance and found wanting;" and his knees smote together—like the knees of Radicalism are smiting together to-day; (great applause and laughter)—"and that night Belshazzar's kingdom departed from him."

Gen. Frank P. Blair writes this to a friend: "Everywhere I find the people in advance of their leaders. Only the politicians are intimidated by radical threats. My business throughout this canvass will be to tell the truth, without fear or favor, regardless of myself or the party."

Wisconsin is going for Seymour and Blair—sure. It is probable even that it will go Democratic by a sufficient majority to overcome a gerrymandered Legislature, and send Doolittle back to the Senate.

The march of Radical despotism—no election in Virginia—no election in Mississippi—no election in Texas—no election in Florida, "Let us have peace."

UNIVERSAL

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

NO EXTRA CHARGE FOR FEMALE RISKS.

LOSSES PAID IN THIRTY DAYS.

No Restrictions on Travel or Residence

OF NEW YORK.

Office, No. 69, Liberty Street.

The Original Joint Stock Life Insurance Company in the United States.

The Business of the Company is exclusively confined to the Insurance of First Class, healthy lives.

The Distinctive Feature

Of the STOCK system of Life Insurance, as opposed to the Mutual, is a low rate of premium, for stated sums insured, which is immediate, sure and certain, in lieu of a high rate of premium and promised dividend, which is distant, contingent and uncertain—this so-called dividend being merely a return of a portion of the excessive and unnecessary premium charged in the first instance.

☞ The premiums charged by the "UNIVERSAL" are nearly one-third lower than those charged by the Mutual Companies.

The "UNIVERSAL" desires to call the particular attention of Agents and others to the new "Return Premium Table," which has been prepared by the Actuary of the Company. It will be noticed that these Rates average less than the ordinary rates charged by Mutuals. The inducements offered by this table are equal to a reversionary dividend of one hundred per cent. of all premiums paid.

Rates to Secure $1,000 at Death, with a Return of all Premiums paid.

AGE.	Ordinary Life Rate.	Ten Payments Rate.	AGE.	Ordinary Life Rate.	Ten Payments Rate.
25	$17.02	$27.49	45	$28.48	$79.18
30	20.00	49.10	50	74.57	104.27
35	21.54	54.04	55	108.27	142.36
40	43.07	67.44	60	163.23	201.07

Example.—A man aged 30 insures his life for $1,000, and pays 43.10 per annum on the 10 payment plan, and dies after having paid five annual payments, or $215.50, his policy will be good for $1,215.50.

NON-FORFEITING CASH RATES

OF THE

ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

OF HARTFORD, CONN.

ASSETS, $10,000,000

$130 to pay every 100 of Liabilities.

DIVIDEND, Fifty per Cent.

57,000 Members, and constantly increasing.

DESCRIPTION OF POLICIES.

First.—Whole Life Policies.

Second.—Endowment Policies, for terms of ten, fifteen, twenty, twenty-five, thirty, and thirty-five years.

AGES.

Insurance will be granted at all ages from fifteen to sixty years.

PREMIUMS.

Premiums are payable annually during the continuance of the insurance, or annually during a period of five, ten, fifteen, or twenty years within the insurance term; or by single payment.

DIVIDENDS.

All Whole Life and Endowment Policies, issued at the published rates, will participate in the surplus from the date of issue.

The dividends will be declared and paid annually upon the contribution plan, and may be applied as the assured shall elect, either to reduce future premiums, or to increase the Cash Value of the Policy.

If no election be made, the dividends will always be added to the Cash Values.

When, by adding the dividends to the Cash Value, the accumulations on any Policy shall have become sufficient to keep the same in force for its full amount without further payments, the assured may at his option, either continue payment of premiums—and enlarge thereby the annual additions to its Cash Value—or discontinue them; and in either case when the accumulations shall have become equal to the sum insured, the annual dividends on the Policy will be declared as a percentage of said sum, and paid in cash, and upon surrender of said Policy the sum insured thereby, will be paid in full, without regard to the time fixed therein for its payment.

This system of applying the dividends is peculiarly advantageous to the assured, securing, at an increased age, not only relief from further payment of premiums, but, at the same time, an annual income until death, unless he shall have previously received full payment of the Policy.

Dividends on paid-up Policies—that is, Policies which require no further payment of premium to continue them in force for the original amount of insurance—will be paid in cash upon demand.

NON FORFEITURE RULES.

No Whole Life or Endowment Policy, on which two or more annual cash premiums have been paid, shall be forfeited by failure to make further payments, as stipulated therein, but will continue in force for the full amount which the Cash Value and dividends then accumulated, will purchase—taken as a single net premium upon the "Actuaries" rate of mortality and four per cent. interest; and the amount continued to be so will generally exceed the aggregate of the payments actually made, extra charges excepted.

No Whole Life or Endowment Policy shall be forfeited by an exposure of the assured life in violation of the conditions expressed therein, unless death shall occur UNDER OR IN CONSEQUENCE of such exposure, when the full Cash Value of the Policy, together with all accumulations from dividends, will be paid upon its surrender.

INCREASE OF INSURANCE.

Applications to increase the sum insured on any life will always be considered as applications for new assurance and, therefore, no increase of insurance will be granted unless the unimpaired condition of the assured life shall have been proved by medical re-examination.

General Agent for the State,

THE NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION!

THE PLATFORM.

"The Democratic party, in national convention assembled, reposing its trust in the intelligence, patriotism, and discriminating justice of the people, standing upon the Constitution as the foundation and limitation of the powers of the Government, and the guaranty of the liberties of the citizen, and recognizing the questions of slavery and secession as having been settled, for all time to come, by the war or the voluntary action of the Southern States in constitutional conventions assembled, and never to be renewed or reagitated, do, with the return of peace, demand:

First.—Immediate restoration of all the States to their rights in the Union, under the Constitution, and of civil government to the American people.

Second.—Amnesty for all past political offences, and the regulation of the elective franchise in the States by their citizens.

Third.—Payment of the public debt of the United States as rapidly as practicable; all moneys draws from the people by taxation, except so much as is requisite for the necessities of the Government, economically administered, being honestly applied to such payment, and where the obligations of the Government do not expressly state upon their face, or the law under which they were issued does not provide that they shall be paid in coin, they ought, in right and in justice, to be paid in the lawful money of the United States.

Fourth.—Equal taxation of every species of property according to its real value, including Government bonds and other public securities.

Fifth.—One currency for the Government and the people, the laborer and the officeholder, the pensioner and the soldier, the producer and the bondholder.

Sixth.—Economy in the administration of the Government; the reduction of the standing army and navy; the abolition of the Freedmen's Bureau (great cheering) and all political instrumentalities designed to secury negro supremacy; simplification of the system and discontinuance of inquisitorial modes of assessing and collecting internal revenue, so that the burden of taxation may be equalized and lessened, the credit of the Government and the currency made good; the repeal of all enactments for enrolling the State militia into national forces in time of peace; and a tariff for revenue dpon foreign imports, and such equal taxation under the internal revenue laws as will afford incidental protection to domestic manufactures, and as will, without impairing the revenue, impose the least burden upon and best promote and encourage the great industrial interests of the country.

Seventh.—Reform of abuses in the Administration, the expulsion of corrupt men from office; the abrogation of useless offices, the restoration of rightful authority to and the independence of the executive and judicial departments of the Government, the subordination of the military to the civil power, to the end that the usurpations of Congress and the despotism of the sword may cease.

Eighth.—Equal rights and protection for naturalized and native born citizens at home and abroad; the assertion of American nationality which shall command the respect of foreign Powers, and furnish an example and encouragemment to people struggling for national integrity, constitutional liberty, and individual rights; and the maintenance of the rights of naturalized citizens against the absolute doctrine of immutable allegiance and the claims of foreign Powers to punish them for alleged crime committed beyond their jurisdiction.

In demanding these measures and reforms we arraign the Radical party for its disregard of right, and the unparalleled oppression and tyranny which have marked its career. After the most solemn and unanimous pledge of both Houses of Congress to prosecute the war exclusively for the maintenance of the Government and the preservation of the Union under the Constitution, it has repeatedly violated that most sacred pledge, under which alone was rallied that noble volunteer army which carried our flag to victory.

Instead of restoring the Union, it has, so far as is in its power, dissolved it, and subjected ten States, in time of profound peace, to military despotism and negro supremacy.

It has nullified there the right of trial by jury; it has abolished the habeas corpus that most sacred writ of liberty; it has overthrown the freedom of speech and the press; it has substituted arbitrary seizures and arrests, and military trials and secret star chamber inquisitions for the constitutional tribunals; it has disregarded in time of peace the right of the people to be free from searches and seizures; it has entered the post and telegraph offices, and even the private rooms of individuals, and seized their private papers and letters without any specific charge or notice of affidavit, as required by the organic law; it has converted the American capitol into a bastile; it has established a system of spies and official espionage to which no constitutional monarchy of Europe would dare to resort; it has abolished the right of appeal on important constitutional questions to the supreme judicial tribunal, and threatens to curtail or destroy its original jurisdiction, which is irrevocably vested by the Constitution, while the learned Chief Justice has been subjected to the most atrocious calumnies merely because he would not prostitute his high office to the support of the false and partisan charges preferred against the President. Its corruption and extravagance have exceeded anything known in history, and by its frauds and monopolies it has nearly doubled the burden of the debt created by the war. It has stripped the President of his constitutional power of appointment even of his own Cabinet. Under its repeated assaults the pillars of the Government are rocking on their base, and should it succeed in November next, and inaugurate its President, we will meet, as a subjected and conquered people, amid the ruins of liberty and the scattered fragments of the Constitution; and we do declare and resolve that ever since the people of the United States threw off all subjection to the British Crown, the privilege and trust of suffrage have belonged to the several States, and have been granted, regulated, and controlled exclusively by the political power of each State respectively, and that any attempt by Congress, on any pretext whatever, to deprive any State of this right, or to interfere with its exercise, is a flagrant usurpation of power which can find no warrant in the Constitution; and it sanctioned by the people will subvert our form of government, and can only end in a single centralized and consolidated Government, in which the separate existence of the States will be entirely absorbed, and an unqualified despotism be established in place of a federal union of co equal States; and that we regard the reconstruction acts (so called) of Congress as usurpations, and unconstitutional, revolutionary, and void; that our soldiers and sailors, who carried the flag of our country to victory against a most gallant and determined foe, must ever be gratefully remembered, and all the guarantees given in their favor must be faithfully carried into execution.

That the public lands should be distributed as widely as possible among the people and should be disposed of either under the pre emption or homestead laws, and sold in reasonable quantities, and to none but actual occupants, at the minimum price established by the Government. When grants of the public lands may be allowed necessary for the encouragement of important public improvements, the proceeds of the sale of such lands, and not the lands themselves, should be so applied.

That the President of the United States, Andrew Johnson, (applause,) in exercising the power of his high office in resisting the aggressions of Congress upon the constitutional rights of the States and the people, is entitled to the gratitude of the whole American people, and in behalf of the Democratic party we tender him our thanks for his patriotic efforts in that regard."

CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS FOR CLUBS.

We have received letters from several sources, requesting us to send printed copies of a Constitution and By Laws for the organization of Seymour and Blair Clubs.—Having none on hand, and no funds to print them, we have prepared the following Constitution and By Laws, as a guide for Clubs, and submit them to the consideration of our friends. They were submitted to the Young Men's meeting to form a Seymour and Blair Club, in this city, on Tuesday night, and unanimously adopted:

CONSTITUTION.

ARTICLE 1st. This Association shall be styled the ——— Club of ——— of North Carolina.

ART. 2. The objects of this Association are as follows: To unite in close political compact every Democrat, Conservative, or by whatever name known, in North Carolina, for the support and defence of the Constitution of the United States; the promotion of the peace and good will of society and the harmony of the Union; the proper enforcement of law and order by legitimate forms, and the utter destruction of Radicalism everywhere by the election of HORATIO SEYMOUR, of New York, as President, and FRANCIS P. BLAIR, of Missouri, as Vice President, and all other Democratic and Conservative nominees for any office; and, further, to promote the mutual benefit and protection of each other in all lawful pursuits, aiding each other in business, as being members of one great political family, seeking to promote each other's welfare, and especially to extend such aid to those who have been or may be ignored or proscribed by the Radical party, as the Association may be able.

ART. 3. The officers of this Club shall consist of a President, three Vice Presidents, a Recording Secretary, a Corresponding Secretary and a Treasurer, who shall perform the duties usual to such offices, and who, together with Five Directors, shall be elected annually at the annual meeting of the Association, and shall constitute an Executive Board, to whom shall be committed the interests of the Club.

ART. 4. This Constitution, and such By-Laws or Regulations as the Club may adopt, may be altered, amended or changed at any public meeting of the Club by a vote of two-thirds of the members present.

SUBSCRIPTION.

We, whose names are herein annexed, do solemnly pledge our word and sacred honor, constantly and faithfully to promote the objects and aims of this Club as set forth in the foregoing Constitution, and do hold ourselves ready to defend the same, and to protect, to the extent of our ability, every member of this Association throughout the State.

BY-LAWS AND REGULATIONS.

1. Every member of this Club shall sign and subscribe the Constitution, in order to recognition.

2. All monied contributions to the objects of the Association shall be voluntary, and shall be held by the Treasurer, who shall keep an exact account and disburse the same only on the order of the Executive Board, to whom he shall submit his accounts when ordered.

3. The Club shall order its public meetings when and where it chooses, and the President may call meetings when desirable, but the Executive Board, or such of its members as may be designated, shall select speakers and make all necessary arrangements

4. Each member of the Executive Board is hereby appointed a Committee to solicit names for membership, also monied donations for the objects of the Club, and to attend to the general interests of the Club, such as directing the correspondence, procuring and circulating documents, &c.

5. The Executive Board shall, meet to transact the private business of the Club as often as it may order, (and the officers of the Club shall be ex-officio officers of the Board;) when the names of members shall be presented for registration or dismissal for good cause, to consider the financial business of the Club, and such other private matters as may be necessary. All members of the Club may attend the private meetings of the Board when convenient, and may give counsel, but the business of the Board will be determined by the vote of the Board itself.

6. Any member of the Club intending to move to any other section, may obtain a certificate of his membership in this Club, if he desire it, to be signed by the President and Secretary.

7. The Executive Board of each Club will give special attention to all matters of registration, voting, &c., see that all do their duty, and that the law is strictly observed, that all fraud or mal-practice is detected and duly punished.

REMARKS.

1. In South Carolina, Georgia, Mississippi and other Southern States, strong Democratic Clubs are being formed, composed of colored citizens. The Constitution above is so worded that it can be adapted to any place or persons. If Democratic Clubs can be formed entirely of colored persons, perhaps it will be best; but where there are few, the Clubs may decide to enter them on their registers or not, as they may elect.

2. We would suggest that Young Men's Clubs, everywhere, should embrace all young men, from 18 years of age, and upwards. Many old men are faint-hearted, timid, afraid to let people know their political status. Take in the young men, who have the pluck, and who may be educated to love the Constitution and the country, and who will always vote right, when they become of age. We need the ardor and boldness of youth, as well as the prudence and wisdom of age. The necessity for this, however, would be obviated, if the young men, under the age of 21, would form Clubs of their own.

3. We insist upon forming Clubs in every Ward, in every precinct and Captain's District in the State, where 25 or 30 members, and as many more as possible, can be obtained. The more the better. The talent and energy of all our people must be brought out. It will not do to let the old men and the old party managers do all the managing and the talking. We must put every man in some position to be useful. By having a Club in every Ward and every neighborhood, we can find room for a great many as officers and talkers and working men. We can have our Club meetings out of doors, these pleasant nights, by moonlight or camp fires, and there will be a chance for every man, who can make a talk, or a little speech, or a great speech, to do something in that line. Let the Clubs be formed. Bring out all our men to work for the Constitution and the country, and let us save them by the election of Seymour and Blair!
